

USA Academic Tour - January 2020
Student Scholarship

The Alliance of Girls' Schools Australasia and Crimson Education are offering a scholarship for students from Alliance member schools to join the USA Academic Tour in January 2020.

The Alliance and Crimson are committed to enhancing learning opportunities for girls in member schools. The scholarship will assist a student, nominated by their principal, who wishes to join this international experience and would otherwise be unable to do so due to financial restrictions.

The scholarship will cover the cost of international and domestic flights, accommodation, transport, activities, breakfast and travel insurance. Additional meals, passport/visa costs and personal expenses will not be covered. Member schools with students participating in the USA Academic Tour may nominate ONE student from their school for the scholarship.

The student must satisfy the following eligibility criteria:

- be a student of an Alliance member school participating in the USA Academic Tour 2019
- be in Year 10-12 (Australia) or Year 11-13 (New Zealand) of secondary school in 2019
- be nominated by the School Principal
- demonstrate that financial restrictions would otherwise mean that joining the tour would not be possible
- be willing to provide feedback on the experience after returning from the tour

To apply for the scholarship, please complete the scholarship nomination form on the following page and submit this to international@crimsoneducation.org by 14th April 2019.

The Alliance and Crimson Education will select the successful scholarship recipient and will notify the student and school by 30th April 2019.
